

Judi Mark "DANCING through LIFE"

with the songs made famous by the ladies who danced

Judi Mark's one woman show, recently seen in New York and Florida, features songs made famous by the women who danced on Broadway and the Silver Screen. This unique performance piece combines Judi's crowd-pleasing singing and dancing gifts with selected film clips as she celebrates the songbooks of Ginger Rogers, Gwen Verdon, Chita Rivera, Carmen Miranda, Donna McKechnie and more with a joy and passion that truly captivates her audience.

"The finale was spectacular - a great big ending to a truly exciting and entertaining show! No need for an encore!"
-Cabaret Hotline

"Judi Mark is one of a kind. A wonderful person, talented dancer and a great artist." -Luigi, Innovator of American Jazz Dance Technique

"When you're working with Judi Mark you're working with the best, cause I've worked with her many times and I only work with the best."

-Pat Cooper

"The audiences loved the show. I would recommend this show to anyone."
-Elmont Memorial Library

"a consummate professional...she engaged the audience immediately with her beautiful voice and was so well received."
Weston Public Library, Conn.

"The Clubhouse was packed and the reception electric as the Drama Group presented the talented Judi Mark's one-woman show."
-Rainberry Bay Beacon, Florida

"I was blown away by her talent."
-Friars Epistle

www.judimark.com

